VENDOR SPACE INFORMATION

Elkton Art & Wine Weekend

What is Art & Wine Weekend?

On Thanksgiving Weekend, local artists and wineries open their studios and tasting rooms to the public. This free tour is a unique opportunity to visit winemakers and artists while enjoying a one-of-a-kind holiday shopping experience. Elkton Community Education Center (ECEC) more local artists and crafters, so people can visit multiple artisans at one site. A map and list of all participating sites and vendors will be available on ECEC's website.

Where is Art & Wine Weekend held?

Vendor Spaces are set up at Elkton Community Education Center (ECEC) located at 15850 Highway 38 West. Other participating businesses, art studios, and wineries are located in and around the town of Elkton. Elkton is approximately halfway between I-5 and the coast on a scenic byway and is easily accessible to people traveling from Roseburg, Eugene, and Florence/Reedsport/Coos Bay.

What is ECEC?

We are a year-round community center and summer tourist destination. Our 43-acre site features a popular butterfly pavilion, replica of historic Fort Umpqua, native plant nursery, gift shop, summer café, and extensive gardens connected by accessible walking trails.

Who can have a space?

Spaces are available at ECEC to area artists and craftspeople, with an emphasis on unique and high-quality holiday gift items.

What does it cost?

- $30 for a standard space (1 folding Table 6ft x 2.5ft)
- $50 for a double space (2 folding tables 6ft x 2.5ft)
- $10 additional fee if you need electricity (limited, please let ECEC know ASAP)

What is the schedule for booths?

- Vendors are chosen from the pool of applicants. Applications are processed and spaces are assigned.
- The rental fee is due with the application and must be paid before the event.
- Please send an image two weeks before the event to showcase your work. ECEC will add it to the publicity and share it on social media. We encourage you to share our posts with your networks to publicize the event.
- ECEC is open to visitors 10 AM-4 PM all three days. Staff and volunteers will be onsite to support vendor set-up at 8 AM Friday; all booths must be set up before 10 AM. There is vehicle access in front of ECEC for loading / unloading.
- Booths must be staffed until 4 PM Friday & Saturday & Sunday.
- Vendors are expected to be present all 3 days of the event.
